

2023 Henley Global Passport Index

This map shows the Henley Global Passport Index ranking of each country from 1 to 104. We can see that countries in North America, Western Europe, UK, Japan, Singapore, Australia, and New Zealand have the highest rankings which are darker red in the graph. Countries in Africa and West Asia have the lowest rankings which are shown in dark blue.

North America

Canada and the United States have high rankings with Canada having a rank of 7 and the United States having a rank of 8.

Europe

The Northern and Western countries in Europe have the highest rankings. Of the top 10 countries with the highest ranking 7 are in these regions.

South America

The northwestern countries have lower rankings compared to the south-eastern countries in South America. Bolivia has the lowest ranking in the area with a rank of 70, and Chile has the highest ranking of 1..

East Asia

We find that this region has a contrast between high-ranking and low-ranking countries. 3 out of 10 countries with the highest ranking are found in the region.

Africa and West Asia

The ten countries with the lowest ranking are in Africa and East Asia with Afghanistan havi..

Australia/Oceania

Australia and New Zealand also have the strongest passports with Australia having a rank of 9 and New Zealand a rank of 6.

© 2023 Mapbox © OpenStreetMap

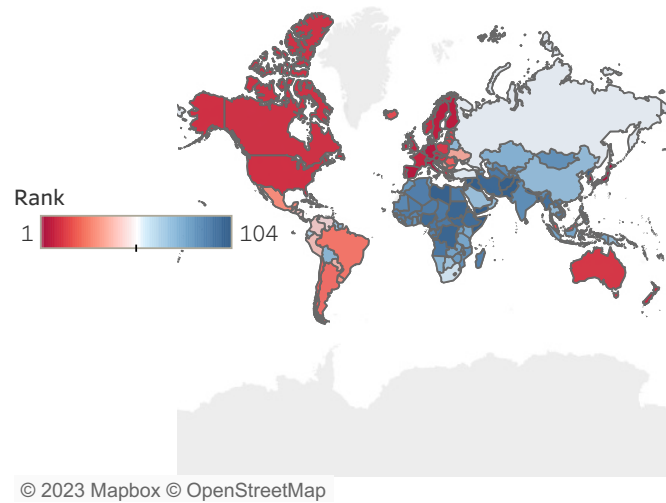

Design: Milagros Cortez

Data: Henley & Partners

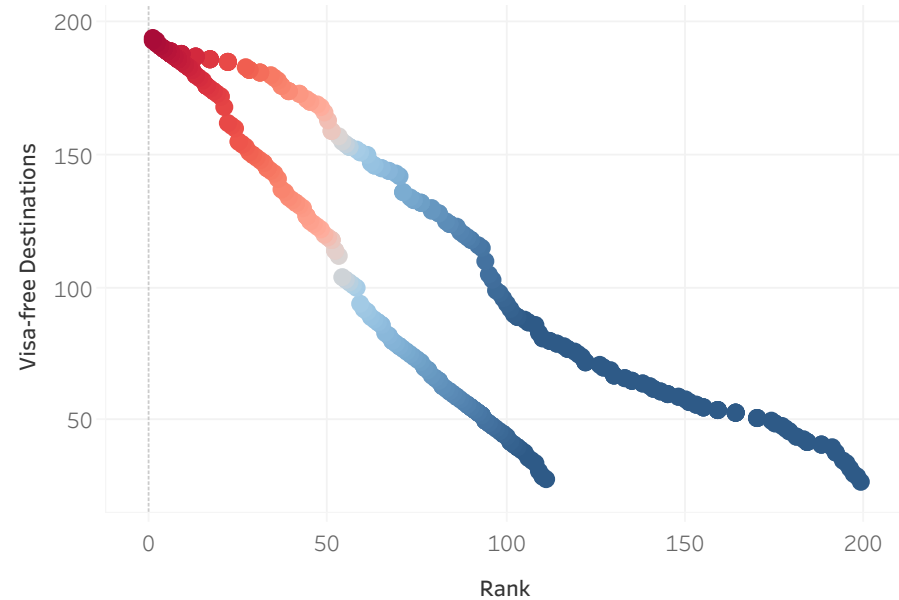

2023 Henley Global Passport Index Dashboard

Design: Milagros Cortez

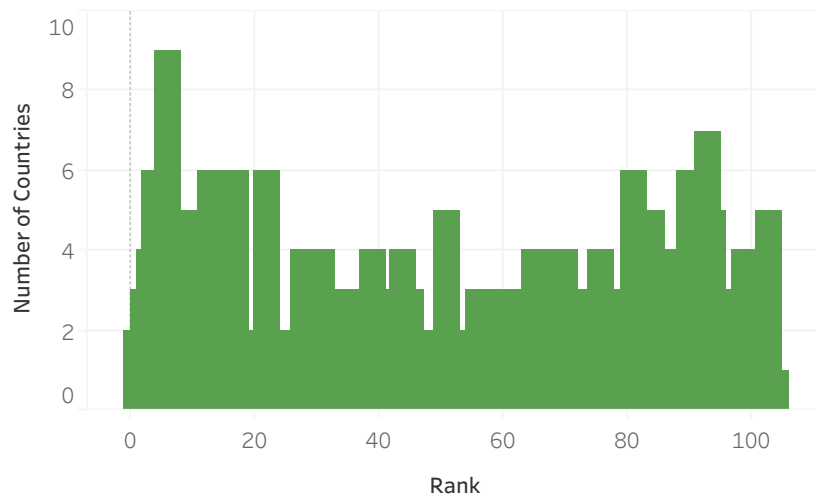

Data: Henley & Partners

Rank vs. Visa Free Destinations

Distribution of Rank

Distribution of Visa-Free Destinations

